

TIMOTHY CORRIGAN

#2001

Pair of Louis XV Style Console Tables

These graceful demi-lune tables from the estate of the late Dorothy Chandler were originally acquired by famed antique dealer, Adolph Loewi. The Louis XV style carved wood detailing reveals a lovely central shell motif with garlands around the leg support. They are finished with a painted wood finish. These tables originally were prominently featured in the famed Mozart music room of Dorothy Chandler's Los Angeles estate, Los Tiempos.
