Louis-Philippe French Desk

This charming French desk, circa 1840, is made of light fruitwood with ebonized detailing creating a crisp clean look that will fit into most decors. Six drawers above the desktop allows for easy storage and the pullout desktop features an inset of black pigskin leather. A hidden storage area beneath one of the drawers is an added bonus. This is a desk that doesn't make you trade off between great looks and practicality.
